

Janos Simon has MA degrees in history, literature, languages, sociology. He finished his postgraduate studies in Mexico (UNAM), Oxford (Nuffield), Amsterdam (UvA) and in Madrid (Complutense). He is founding director of Gallup Hungary and was research director of Institute of Political Science of Hungarian Academy of Sciences, professor of political science Univ. ELTE Budapest, and director of Institute of Political Science of Univ. Miskolc. Currently, he is president of Scientific Committee of Univ. Kodolányi Budapest and director of the Research Institute of Comparative Democracy. He was a lecturer and invited professor at 37 universities in 26 countries. He wrote 26 books and has 170 publications in seven languages. (Comparative Electoral System in Central Europe; The Postcommunist Citizens with Sam Barnes; Meaning of Democracy; Globalization and Nation; John C. Harsanyi and his Game-theory etc.).